Y-12 Federal Credit Union Welcomes New Vice President of Retail, Jon Holland

OAK RIDGE, February 16, 2021 - Y-12 FCU is pleased to announce a new Vice President of Retail has been hired. Jon Holland joins the Y-12 Federal Credit Union team with over 25 years of retail and leadership experience in the financial services industry. A graduate of Boise State University, Jon also served in the US Army with the 193rd Infantry Brigade where he was deployed in several combat missions as well as the 101st Airborne in Desert Storm.

Jon is currently continuing his financial education at the Western CUNA Management School at Pomona College in CA. Throughout his successful career, Jon has been deeply involved in community outreach in a variety of leadership capacities such as serving on the executive board of the chamber of commerce, Habitat for Humanity, and Ronald McDonald House just to name a few. His leadership expertise extends to areas like leadership development, sales and service training, continuous improvement and branch transformation.

Jon has been married to his wife, Amy, for over 20 years and has two daughters. In addition to a career shift, Jon and Amy had the joy of welcoming their first grandchild - a granddaughter - in January. He is excited to join the Y-12 FCU team and help the organization continue to make a positive impact in East Tennessee.
